Dear Collector:

Herewith, another edition, our third, of Re-Collections. This issue, besides our usual selection of United States, foreign and ancient coins, we have expanded our section on historic American collectibles, which seems to have met with great acceptance last time. We hope you enjoy it.

A word on returns. Please bear in mind that this is an AUCTION sale, not an APPROVAL sale. While we will accept for return any coin not as described, please do not return won items capriciously for refund. Such procedure is not fair to the underbidder, and proves rather costly for us. All grading is done in accordance with ANA rules, whose handbook we helped write. Important coins are photographed clearly, and any important fault is delineated in the description and usually is quite apparent on the picture. Thanks for your understanding.

Sincerely,
THE STAFF

SALES RULES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- 1—You may bid on any of the following coins at a price equal or above the stated minimum bid.
- 2—All bids must be received by the cut-off date, either by mail or phone, or in person.
- 3—In the event of identical bids, first bid received shall win lot.
- 4—Bids will be accepted in $1 increments only. Odd amounts will be brought to the nearest dollar.
- 5—All coins are guaranteed to be genuine and as described. Any lot not as described or pictured may be returned within ten days of receipt for full refund.
- 6—Payment for lots must be received before shipment. We accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Diners Club.
- 7—All returns must be accompanied by original bill or copy.

If you have any questions regarding any of the lots, you may call Toll-Free WATS 800-221-7276 outside of New York State or (212) 751-1900 within state limits. New York State residents must add appropriate sales tax. Minimal shipping charges will also be added.

ALL OFFERINGS WILL BE ON DISPLAY AT OUR GALLERIES STARTING TWO WEEKS PRIOR TO CUT-OFF DATE.

LARGE CENTS

Quite possibly the most collectable of all U.S. coins, issued from 1793 to 1857, with over 1000 die varieties. Veteran collectors are aware that these were our most used coins, and that pieces in lower grades will, of necessity, show the signs of that hard usage. Additionally, copper smelting was in its infancy here those early years, and many planchets are not as smooth as coins of later years. We have, wherever considered necessary, delineated these faults.

Lot #	Min. Bid
36. 1793 Wreath (Sheldon-8), R-3. strong VG, some would call fine, full date, legend, Liberty etc, although a trifle weak. Edges show usage, some old bangs, etc, and there is a small defect below the chin (see photograph) Nevertheless, attractive.	950.00
37. 1794, (S-44), R-2, fine, planchet a bit rough and darkened, not nearly as bad as it sounds.	95.00
38. 1794, (S-55), R-3, 'The Big Berries'. VF in point of wear but with several edge bangs. Rev. weakly struck on old naval copper sheathing, very rough planchet but a bargain!	150.00

Draped Bust Type

39. 1797, (S-121), 'The Grippped Edge', VG-F, a little rev. red iron oxide at outer edges, prominent die cracks.	110.00
40. 1798, (S-169), a real rarity (5) Fine+, edge ding obv., deep scratch eliminates "E" of United, plus a few other lighter marks.	100.00
41. 1798, (S-187), sharp VF. Under the glass, planchet shows a little unevenness, as struck. Lovely appearance, nice type.	185.00
42. 1799, THE KEY. Probably the best coin in this sale. VF-30, and practically never available this good. Current condition census shows 50/30/30/30/30/25, making this possibly the second best known. No outstanding faults, but a few minor ones as expected on a VF. Planchet is just a wee bit rough, light old scratch from back of head to rim, where there is a very slight rim dent, two light rev. scratches. Tiny lamination on neck all these being patinated-over in a dark chocolate color. This is a super piece nevertheless, of highest rarity and worthy of the finest collection, type, date or specialized. With PNG papers, authenticity and grade guaranteed.	3,850.00
43. 1800 (S-206), rare type (4) VF in point of wear, planchet is quite rough, as this was most likely struck on poor copper, but cheap!	65.00
44. 1801, (S-223). 1/000. VF, planchet quite rough in spots.	65.00
45. 1802, (S-227), R-3, nice acceptable VF-20 with the usual tiny old faults one might find on such, nothing serious.	125.00
46. 1802, (S-228), R-2, 1/000 VF-20, numerous tiny pits show under the glass, but of nice appearance.	95.00

Lot #	Min. Bid	Lot #	Min. Bid
47. 1802, (S-232), "T" over "Y". VF-30, couple of small rough spots in obv. fields, prominent rev. rim-break, altogether nice.	135.00	78. 1838, (N-5), R-2, EF-40, a few rough spots on the planchet.	30.00
48. Another, VF in wear, rough planchet, couple of edge bumps, a few obv. digs.	65.00
49. 1802, (S-236) VF-20, a bit rough, obv. edge ding, like all of these not nearly as serious as described.	65.00
50. 1802, (S-241), Stemless. VG-8, lots of light old scratches in the fields.	25.00
51. 1803, (S-251), R-3. Lightly rough VF-20, "3" of date visible but damaged by either dig or old lamination.	50.00
52. 1803, (S-256), R-4, F-15, worth $100	50.00
53. 1803, (S-256), VF but with beaucoup minor problems, wee bit rough, couple edge whacks, etc, and yet not all that bad as a whole	50.00
54. 1803, (S-265), R-4, VF in point of wear but planchet has been through the wars, possibly buried, with numerous rough spots.	50.00
55. 1805, (S-267), just a straight F-15.	45.00
56. 1806, (S-270), rare date, good-4.	25.00
57. 1806, (S-270), nice VF-30 with very light old scratches across the face, hardly visible without a glass. Well worth over	150.00
58. 1806, (S-270), lovely strong VF with tiny edge lamination at "1" of date, nothing serious.	200.00
59. 1807, (S-275), Rarity-5, VG-8, no problems other than honest wear.	65.00
60. 1807, (S-276), F-15, tiny edge cut left of date.	55.00
61. 1807, (S-276), F-15, several old obv. small scratches.	55.00
62. 1807, (S-276), VF-20 with a scattering of tiny old pockmarks on the obverse, barely visible to naked eye.	110.00
63. 1807-6, (S-273), desirable overdate. F-15, again, some old scratches deep chocolate color hides most.	45.00

Classic Head Type

64. 1810, Classic. (S-284), R-3, nice planchet for this series, Fine-15	45.00
65. 1810/09, (S-281), EF-45, and a low Condition Census piece. The usual slightly rough planchet keeps this from a higher rating, but it is still a very desirable coin, quite rare in high grade. Rich milk-chocolate color, well-struck and very, very nice.	700.00
66. 1814, Crosslet "4" F-12 (S-294), with some light iron oxide.	42.00
67. 1814, regular "4", (S-295), just a normal VG-8.	32.00

Coronet Type

68. 1817 15 stars, VF-20, dark and just a bit rough.	30.00
69. 1819/18, (N-2), beautiful mostly red BU-60 + +, an outstanding coin to highlight any collection, a real winner!	695.00
70. 1820/19, overdate, (N-1). VF-20, a few dark spots (stains) on obv. couple rev. edge dings.	25.00
71. 1820, (N-13), Randall Hoard piece, with die-breaks. Dark brown unc. with a few darker streaks on the reverse, displays well.	210.00
72. 1821, (N-2), a really rare date especially in high grade. This is a strong EF-45, seldom seen this good. Deep chocolate.	525.00
73. 1822, (N-3), nice VF-20, some old light scratches both sides.	23.00
74. 1823/2, (N-1), tough overdate, just VG-8.	27.00
75. 1834, (N-1), lovely rich brown AU-55, some would call Unc.	165.00
76. 1837, (N-4), just a little short of EF, call it VF-35 +.	25.00
77. 1838, (N-6), Gorgeous, glistening rich brown Unc.-63 + with only two extremely tiny marks on the obv. top edge to note, not even noticeable and possibly mint-caused. A real flasher.	475.00
